

FOREIGN STUDENT

Sign in to your My Account space with a provisional social security number

Procedure for an initial application

- 1 Go to caf.fr and submit your housing assistance application. You will be required to create your account at that time. You will then receive a temporary ID consisting of the letter P followed by 8 digits (PXXXXXXXX).
- 2 Track the progress of your application from your account by logging in with your temporary ID.
- 3 The Caf will process your application and assign you a temporary social security number, make sure to keep it! This will become your new account ID

i Remember to forward an identity document (ID card or passport) and a civil status document (birth certificate) to the Caf.

If you already receive a benefit

- 1 Retrieve your provisional social security number issued by the Caf: this is your login for accessing your My Account space

- 2 If you have not received one, please contact your Caf branch by calling 3230 (free service + price of a local call)

calling 3230

