

Sign in to your «My Account » space with a provisional social security number

PROCEDURE FOR AN INITIAL APPLICATION

1

Go to caf.fr and submit your housing assistance application. You will be required to create your account at that time.

You will then receive a temporary ID consisting of the letter P followed by 8 digits (PXXXXXXX).

2

Track the progress of your application from your account by logging in with your temporary ID.

3

The Caf will process your application and assign you a temporary social security number, make sure to keep it! This will become your new account ID.

Remember to forward an identity document (ID card or passport) and a civil status document (birth certificate) to the Caf.

IF YOU ALREADY RECEIVE A BENEFIT

1

Retrieve your provisional social security number issued by the Caf: this is your login for accessing your «My Account» space

2

If you have not received one, please contact your Caf branch by calling 3230 (free service + price of a local call) vas-y!

